

We encourage everyone to learn more about the bully breeds. Following is a small selection of suggested websites.

www.pbrc.net

PBRC (Pit Bull Rescue Central) is an invaluable resource — an online “clearing house” of information for owners and caretakers of the Pit Bull breeds.

www.understand-a-bull.com

Excellent site for up to date information on areas with breed specific legislation and laws, and the facts surrounding BSL.

www.theanimalfarmfoundation.org

Good site for history of pit bulls and information about breed specific laws. This site offers many printable fact sheets and handouts designed to help with educating the public about pit bulls.

www.LawDogsUSA.org

The Washington State Police specifically seek out pit bulls to train for their bomb and drug detection canines - because these dogs can be trusted in large crowds of people, and will stay focused and on task. Visit their website to learn more, and watch their dogs in action!

www.ForPitsSake.org

Website for one of the most famous U.S. Search and Rescue teams which just happen to be pit bulls! Of special note is their dog bite prevention program for kids.

www.savingamericasdog.com

Best Friends Animal Society’s campaign to save the Pit Bull. Great resources to help educate people to the truth about Pit Bulls and BSL.

WHO WE ARE

The Buster Foundation is a 501c3 charitable rescue group dedicated to helping re-home surrendered and stray pit bull and bull breed mixes. We are a group of individuals that have come to realize that the pit bull desperately needs a better educated and understanding public so the misconceptions society has come to believe about them is finally put in it's proper perspective. We are committed to placing these spectacular and loving canines in educated, responsible and loving homes.

We hope for, and work toward, the day when the words "pit bull" or "pit bull mix" will not automatically mean death to these loving, devoted and magnificent animals. Until there are no bully souls un-owned or lost, broken, beaten, starving, neglected or suffering from the cold or heat, there will be work for us to do. We pray for the day when we are no longer needed to fight the good fight.
